THE LAST CHANGE—By Heywood Hardy

There is that about the old stage coaching days that always appeals. When the appeal is made so directly as Heywood Hardy has done it the impression is just a trifle short of that which would be produced by the real thing. There's a get-up and go about "The Last Change" that is seldom worked into a picture.

THE PICTURE AVAILABLE TO READERS OF TO-DAY'S WASHINGTON HERALD IS A SUPERB PHOTOGRAVURE, THE ART STORE PRICE OF WHICH WOULD BE $2.00.

ART COUPON "The Last Change"

Present this coupon at the business counter of The Washington Herald, with 10 cents, and it will entitle you to a photogravure reproduction of this great picture.

Another coupon for another work of art next Sunday. Watch for it.

If the picture is to be mailed, send 5 cents additional to cover cost of postage and packing.

Another opportunity is offered to those who failed to get the world's greatest animal picture, Rosa Bonheur's "The Horse Fair." The accompanying coupon will make this grand photogravure available.

FOURTH ENTRIES IN

Large Number to Participate in Municipal Games.

HANDSOME MEDALS AWARDED

Prizes Decorated on One Side with District Seal, While on the Reverse Side Will Be Engraved the Year and Event for Which It Was Won—Local Cracks Entered.

Entries closed yesterday afternoon for the municipal games which will be held on the afternoon of the Fourth under the auspices of the committee on a safe and sane Independence Day. Judging from the large number of good men entered, this meet will be a "hummer" from an athletic standpoint, and the winners of each event may justly claim the title of District champion. Nearly all of our local cracks expect to be in town for that day, and a great many have entered in several events. The medals which will be awarded are said to be the prettiest that have ever been given in a set of local games. On one side will be the District seal, while on the reverse side will be engraved the year of the games and the event for which it was won.

To Commissioner Cuno H. Ralldolph for his interest and encouragement, to Supt. of Buildings and Grounds Cosby, and to Dr. W. B. Hudson, who has put the bathing beach at the disposal of the athletes, are owed the thanks of the many athletes and of the committee, for without the help and interest shown by these three officials the games would not, and could not, be the success that present indications proclaim.

A capable corps of officials has been decided upon by the athletic committee, and the complete list is given below:

Honorary referee, Cuno H. Ralldolph; referee, Dr. D. E. Wilber; track and field judges, Messrs. James A. O'Shea, W. C. Sullivan, John T. Meany, Daniel E. Gargies, H. C. Meyer, and Richard Watkins; timers, Messrs. Claude R. Zappone, W. C. Thacher, C. E. Edwards, W. B. Hibbs, Thomas Kirby, and Rudolph Jose; clerk of course, W. G. Stuart; assistant clerk of course, Messrs. W. W. Tenny, J. D. Walsh, W. D. Brown, Linwood Ott, William Covall, and Bertram Walker; chief marshal, Capt. D. Spencer Bliss; assistant marshals, Charles A. Watson, S. T. Milliken, and William Peet; starter, C. Edward Beckett; custodian of prizes, W. P. Bowie.

HOTEL FOR THE OLD CLERKS.

Woman Writer Suggests Unique
Plan at Meeting.

At the League of American Pen Women's meeting Wednesday night at the Rockhampton, Mrs. Anna Burdett Hamilton, first vice president, presiding, Mrs. Marie Graves Bopham read a paper on "Retirement of superannuated clerks," outlining a unique plan. She advocated a "Federal service hotel," or home and hospital, and the creation of a fund by deducting from the salaries of all Federal employees, wherever located, a monthly amount ranging from 25 cents to $1, based on salaries of $1,000 or less to $1,500 or over. At the expiration of five years, this fund, under government supervision, to be devoted to the payment of future expenses of the hotel and hospital, with the exception of an annual appropriation for payment of a hospital staff consisting of two surgeons and necessary nurses.

To any man or woman employee who has a wife or husband living at the age of retirement, he or she may receive $15 per month in lieu of admission to the hotel, if preferred. That seventy years be the determining limit of retirement, and the act in its entirety to apply to all Federal service employees, wherever situated.

Among others present were Mrs. Edith Kingman Kern, Mrs. Susie Root Rhodes, Mrs. Annie A. Wilder, Miss Elizabeth A. Hyde, Mrs. L. J. Y. Withee, Mrs. J. O. Estabrook, Miss Ruth Norcross, Mrs. Lydia Adams Williams, Mrs. Holbrook, Miss Franklin, and Miss Palmer.

LAND OFFICE CHIEF

SCHWARTZ QUILTS JOB

Prominent Figure in Ballinger-Pinchot Controversy.

Harry H. Schwartz, chief of the General Land Office field service and a prominent figure in the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy, has tendered his resignation to Commissioner Dennett, of the Land Office.

Immediately upon its transmission to Secretary Ballinger it was accepted, and the appointment of James M. Sheridan, special agent of the Land Office, announced.

Mr. Sheridan has his headquarters in Denver, and is in charge of the government's inquiry into the Cunningham-Alaskan coal claims.

Congratulated by officials.

Mr. Schwartz received letters of congratulation from both Secretary Ballinger and Commissioner Dennett.

That Mr. Schwartz has desired to leave the service has been known for more than a year, but when the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy came up he consented to remain in the service.

Mr. Schwartz leaves shortly for Portland, Ore., where he will be a law partner of Clarence E. Moulton. For the last eleven years he has been connected with the General Land Office, except for a brief period when he was United States attorney at Helena, Mont. He has earned an enviable reputation.

Mr. Schwartz's successor, James M. Sheridan, is a well-known attorney. He was successful in prosecuting many Colorado coal and timber cases. When he was in active service in the Philippines he attracted the attention of President Taft and was transferred from the War Department to the Interior Department some years ago.

DAMAGES FOR UNCLE SAM.

National Museum Contractor and Bonding Company Lose Suit.

Damages of $50,000 were awarded the government in its suit against F. F. Graham, a Baltimore contractor, and the Title Trust and Guarantee Company, of Scranton, Pa., in the United States District Court at Baltimore yesterday.

The suit was brought because of the failure of the contractor to complete the new National Museum here on schedule time. Graham had the contract for constructive work on the building and was bonded for $50,000 by the Scranton company. The work was stopped when half completed, the government charged.

Judge Thomas J. Morris allowed the government $50,000 damages, the full amount of the bond. The case was the first one of importance conducted by United States District Attorney John Philip Hill, and the outcome is regarded as a signal victory for him.
